CHANGE IN THE NEXT HOUSE.

CONSTITUTION BAILEY AND PRIVATE ALLEN WILL BE ABSENT.

The Dean of the Mississippians Will Also be Away—A South Carolina Republican in Trouble.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, April 24—In the next house of representatives there is likely to be some notable changes on the democratic side of the house. At least three of the leading southern members of the house are likely to be missing when the roll is called at the beginning of the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

One of the members who will likely retire is Hon. Joe Bailey, of Texas, who has served as the democratic leader through several congresses, and who for years has been one of the most prominent as well as one of the most popular members of the lower branch of congress. Although Mr. Bailey through his course in the last congress upon various public measures, lost much of his former support as democratic leader, his personality has been a strong one, and he has retained much support. If he enters the United States senate at the beginning of the next congress, to succeed Senator Chilton, as now seems to be assured, Mr. Bailey will necessarily be compelled to retire from the house, and it is likely that he will decline a renomination.

Another picturesque figure on the democratic side of the house who will retire is Congressman Allen, of Mississippi, whose reputation since his first entrance in congress has become national. It is said that Mr. Allen will retire to enter the lecture field, where his originality and jokes ought to be appreciated, and doubtless will be.

Another Mississippi congressman who will retire is the "dean" of the delegation from that state in congress, General Thomas C. Catchings, who has been in congress for fourteen years or more. It is said that his retirement is the result of an agreement entered into two years ago when he was seeking a renomination, that his antagonist of that year should have the nomination this year.

Former Collector John R Tolbert, of South Carolina, who has been the central figure in the custom house scandal at Charleston, is in Washington. His son, Mr. R. R. Tolbert, who was a candidate for congress from the Greenville, South Cirrolina district two years ago, is also in the city. Collector Tolbert is here for the purpose of seeing the treasury department officials, and seek a further investigation as to the charges which led to his summary dismissal from office. In view of the fact that Collector Wallace has been appointed, and the nomination has been confirmed by the United States senate, it is difficult to see that Collector Tolbert can accomplish anything now, and his mission to Washington will probably be a useless one. Mr. Tolbert is much put out because, as he claims, the treasury department did not afford him an opportunity to answer the charges against him, and clear his name from the stain imposed upon it by those he claims to be his political enemies. Mr. R. R. Tolbert had a contest pending in congress, but it is said that his visit is not in relation to the contest. It is said that the contest has been abandoned by Mr. Tolbert.

DOES THE SULTAN WANT WAR?

Hamid Would Not Care if an Ultimatum Was Issued.

Washington Special, 19th, to New York World.

It is intimated tonight by diplomats familiar with the situation that the Sultan of Turkey does not care particularly whether an ultimatum is issued by the United States because of the neglect to pay the claim for $100,000 which the United States is now demanding after years of promises, as he has means of reprisal at hand.

There are in the Philippines more than 3,500,000 Mohammedans in the Sulu Islands, whose devotion to their calipha is fanatic. The Sultan would have to but lift his finger and these Malays and Moros would join forces with the Tagalos. The revolution in the Luzon would be extended all through the Philippine Islands. More than that, a break would give the Sultan a long-desired chance to repounce certain treaties between the United States and the Ottoman empire. One of these concluded shortly after Commodore Decatur punished the Tripolitan pirates, guarantees that any American accused of a crime or misdemeanor within the Turkish empire, shall be tried only by a United States consular court and be punished only according to American laws. This is a privilege not granted to the subjects of any other power, and its advantages are peculiarly important to missionaries in Turkey.

IN EIGHT MILES OF WEPENER.

BELIEVED THAT IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS ARE NOT FAR OFF.

Cost of the War Six Hundred and Fifty Millions if the War Lasts Three Months More.

London, April 24.—Gen. Rundle apparently found the Boers confronting him at Dewetsdorp stronger than he cares to engage so he is marking time pending the arrival of support. In the meantime Brabant and Hart are pushing along the frontier of Basutoland, and hence will be able to frustrate any attack on Rundle's right, and French and Pole-Carew are hastening from Bloemfontein to bar the Boer line of retreat northward.

SHELLING YESTERDAY.

Warrenton, April 24.—Shelling was resumed by the Boers yesterday, the fire being directed at the British river redoubts, which are being pushed forward steadily. It is believed that important developments are not very far off.

SCATTERED AT NIGHT.

Karrefontein, April 22 (Sunday).—A patrol of the Seventeenth lancers this morning rounded Leeuw Kop and found the Boers had evacuated the forage farmhouse where they had been quartered and had scattered in such a way that it was plain they had made a rapid night move.

IN EIGHT MILES OF WEPENER.

London, April 24.—Brabant's force, after outflanking the Boers at Bushman's Kop, are now reported within eight miles of Wepener, which is now practically relieved. Dalgetty's force was hardly molested Monday.

THE COST OF THE WAR.

London, April 24.—Officials of the treasury estimate the cost of the war in South Africa, if it closes within three months, at six hundred and fifty million dollars.

TWO NEARLY MURDERED.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn, of Richmond, Found in a Bad Way in Philadelphia.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Philadelphia, April 24.—Mrs. Kuhn, of Richmond, Va., is dying in St. Joseph's hospital of terrible injuries. She was found lying in the yard of the Kuhn apartments, clad in her night dress, bleeding and unconscious. Her head and face were cut as with a knife. One leg was broken and the body badly bruised, as if it had been kicked and beaten. Her husband was found in the bed room, partially dressed, upon the floor in a pool of blood, with his throat cut from ear to ear, but not deeply. It is believed he will recover. Kuhn is an ex-state senator.

JUMPED INTO A COKE OVEN.

The Awful Suicide of an Unknown Man at the Frick Coke Co.

Connellsville, Pa., April 23—Leaping high into the air as an expert diver would in taking a fancy plunge into the water, an unknown man committed suicide this morning at the foundry works of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, by diving into a coke oven. In less than a minute what had been a man apparently in the full vigor of life had mingled with the curling smoke of the ovens, distinguishable only by its bluish brown color and nauseating odor from the gas smoke of the burning coal.

A more tragic death never occurred in this region. The coke workers saw him only for an instant as he prepared for the leap. He was well dressed, of medium height and weight and smooth shaven. For the slightest possible space of time he seemed to pause on the sloping ground behind the ovens, quick as a flash he ran down the slope, taking the quick short steps of a trained athlete, who gauges them precisely for the jump he intends taking. Eight feet from the oven-tops the man shot into the air, his hands poised above his head in the fashion of a diver, and descending swiftly, dropped head first into the tunnel head of an oven that had burned to the sizzling white heat of coke, just before it is drawn. For an instant the body clogged the tunnel head and the legs were wriggled as though a desperate effort were being made to squirm through and meet death quickly in the blazing oven. A rush was made for the oven door by the horrified coke drawers. All there was to show for the man, who but a few seconds before had been in life, was a charred mass of flesh not three feet in length. There is no means of identification.

TAYLOR WILL RETURN FOR TRIAL

EX-GOV. BRADLEY AND OTHERS PLEDGED TO PROTECT HIM.

The Howards are in the Mountains, Surrounded by Feudists and Cannot be Taken.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Frankfort, April 24—Taylor will return to Kentucky, face his accusers, and demand an immediate trial of the indictment. This was announced in a telegram received from Taylor last night, as was also the determination of the Governor not to take advantage of the offer of Governor Roosevelt to protect him in the event of a demand for him by Beckham. Taylor decided upon this course on the advice of Ex-Governor Bradley and other Kentuckians who pledged themselves to defend him and force a fair and speedy trial.

Jim and Jerry Howard, who are indicted for the murder of Goebel, will never be taken alive. An attempt was made to capture them last night, but the deputies who had warrants were forced to beat a hasty retreat, as the Howards were intrenched in the mountains and surrounded by over a hundreds feudists who declared that the accused should never be taken alive. Captain Powers, brother of the Secretary of State, who is indicted, was discovered in a hut in the mountains of Bell county yesterday, guarded by ten mountain men. His position was impregnable and he cannot be arrested.

SHE POISONED THEM.

Mrs. Roberts Gave Her Children Laudanum and Then Shot Herself.

Goldsboro Special to News and Observer.

A shocking affair took place here yesterday which came near ending the lives of two children and a married lady.

Mrs. Joseph Roberts, concealed in her house, behind locked doors administered large doses of laudanum to each of her two children, aged 6 and 4 respectively, and then taking a 38-calibre pistol, placing it over her left breast, fired the fatal shot that barely missed her heart. The bullet entered her left lung causing internal bleeding. Physicians were called in and succeeded in resuscitating the children. Mrs. Roberts' condition is somewhat improved this morning and slight hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Domestic trouble is supposed to have been the cause of her action.

Retirement of Dr. Andrews.

Chicago Tribune.

E. Benjamin Andrews has virtually severed his connection with the public schools of Chicago, his resignation having been accepted by the board of education. His term does not expire until the close of the school year, but the board generously gives him a vacation with full pay until that time Pending his entering upon his duties as Chancellor of the University of Nebraska, next fall, it is understood he will spend a part of the time in traveling for the benefit of his health. Notwithstanding Dr. Andrews has antagonized many members of the board and kept the school business in a stirred up condition ever since he has been here, the good wishes of the board and the public will accompany him to his new position, which he undoubtedly will find much more agreeable than trying to run a school system independent of the school board on the one hand and city hall politics on the other.

Iron Moulders Union.

Winston Journal.

Mr J. P. F. Frey, of the Iron Moulder's Union of North America, last night established an order of the Union in Winston-Salem. The order started with ten members. The following are the officers:

President, L. A. Spach; vice-president, H. H. White; financial secretary and corresponding representative, G. G Foust; recording secretary, John Fogle; treasurer, J. S. Dillon.

Mr. Frey has also established an order in Charlotte and will establish a number of orders in the South.

A NIGHT SPENT IN THE WOODS

EFFECT OF THE AWFUL SOLITUDE WHEN FIRST EXPERIENCED.

The Awe Inspiring Stillness Makes Sleep an Impossibility For Many and Brings Visions of Terror to Haunt the Tired Senses.

The awe inspiring stillness of the first night in camp! You lie on your back vainly courting sleep. Vainly, I say, because of the very intense stillness which should woo it, but does not, as you are unused to it. Your guide lies motionless, only his heavy breathing denoting that he is alive. It is second nature to him to sleep in the heart of the wilderness, and his tired body no more than touches the sweet scented pine boughs when he slumbers.

It will be so with you when you have accustomed yourself to the preternatural quiet so different from the rumble of passing vehicles over paved streets and which affects you not. But tonight your eyelids are opened wide, and instead of the blissful forgetfulness which you anticipated, your every sense is on the alert to catch and divine the meaning of the strange noises which fill the woods of northern Maine.

In front of your rude camp, which is left open, the smoldering fire smokes and crackles, each snap of charred embers sounding to your ears like the report of artillery. It is a strange sensation, this first night in the woods. Away up on the mountain side a fox barks. The weird howl echoes and re-echoes down the mountain side until it seems to reach the lake and float over its glasslike surface until it is swallowed up in the dark water.

A night owl makes bold to disturb your already troubled mind by perching on a big pine not a hundred feet away and sending forth a screech that curdles your blood until you realize what it really is. Directly back of you is the lake shore.

Suddenly comes a soft tread over dried brush. Surely some one is stealing up to your camp. You rise to a sitting position and await the marauder's next move. Then once more you hear the snap, snap, snap of his feet as he cautiously draws near. Louder and louder, you cannot be mistaken this time; this is no trick of the imagination.

Now he must be directly beside you, with nothing but a wall of boughs between. You can stand it no longer, and, with a half suppressed yell of excitement, you seize your gun, spring to your feet, dash aside the light canvas that falls over the front of the camp just enough to keep out the smoke and run out prepared to shoot on sight. There is a mad scramble, a crackling of twigs, a mad splash, and—the head of a very badly frightened muskrat can just be seen on the lake's surface as it frantically pushes its way into the gloom.

You creep softly back to your boughs rather ashamed at yourself and glance furtively at the guide, who sleeps peacefully through it all. At last nature asserts herself and gradually you feel the drowsiness of approaching slumber steal over you. You slightly raise your head to take one last look at the flickering log that splutters away outside.

Hist! What's that? Two fiery eyes set in the framework of impenetrable gloom beyond the fire seem staring directly at you. Like coals, they burn and the words of your guide, "Oh, yes, thar's plenty of bar roun yere," come back to you with awful import. Then you hear the tread of his cushion padded feet moving here and there, but those awful eyes never once turn from you. They burn you with their hypnotic, baleful glare, and with a calmness you would not have believed you possessed, you softly reach for your rifle.

A muskrat may be a joke, but a hungry bear prowling within 20 feet of you is an unsafe guest. You know you are as white as a sheet, and your hands tremble as you bring the piece to your shoulder and aim directly between those awful greenish yellow eyes. Suppose you miss; but, no, you will not. Your finger presses the trigger.

The roar of your rifle sounds like a clap of thunder, and its reverberations roll and chase each other over the tops of the pines and spruces and startle a thousand sleeping creatures who render night hideous with their frightened cries as they scurry or fly away from your vicinity. It's a rude way to awaken a man, and no wonder your guide jumps up yelling like a Comanche Indian and nearly knocks out the back of the camp as he runs against it.

When he finds you pale and trembling and hears you declare that you have shot a bear, he mutters incredulously and, lighting a lantern, goes out to investigate. You hear a loud French-Canuck laugh as he returns carrying by the tail a headless chipmunk, which he tosses at your feet. "You wan good shot, m'sieur. You heet him square 'tween de eyes. No shoot better meself, but ah tink you narve, what you call, onstring, you better take wan good dreenk 'n go to sleep."

So are sounds magnified in the silence of a first night in the Maine woods.—Portland (Me.) Express.

Our Debt to the Barn Fowl.

It is quite possible, though of course not demonstrable, that the humble barn fowl has been a larger benefactor of our race than any mechanical invention in our possession, for there is no inhabited country on earth today where the barn fowl is not a mainstay of health. There are vast regions of South America and Europe where it is the mainstay, and nowhere is there known anything that can take its place, which is probably more than can be said of anything in the world of mechanics.—Century.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25 1900.

DEFINE THE MOVEMENT.

The Telegram yesterday unhesitatingly advised Democrats not to take part in the so-called citizen's meeting in the Court House last night, simply because we saw in it a possible danger to the organized Democracy of the city, and consequently to the party of the county. This danger, in intention at least, on the part of the organizers of the movement, was very plainly shown by the meeting, the chief nominee of the meeting declaring that he was opposed to the method of selecting candidates by the primary system, which is the Democratic plan of campaign. This of course stamps the whole thing as an out and out, in the open, opposition to the Democratic party, and hence Democrats have no choice but to repudiate it.

More than that, while claiming to be the expression of "Many Citizens," the meeting clearly showed itself to be a cut and dried affair, with all tickets made in advance and put through without opposition or discussion. Really the whole thing narrows itself down to the opposition of a few men to the Democratic party and methods, and would not be worth much notice were it not for the fact that they have made an attempt to ensnare honest and well meaning Democrats into a scheme of opposition to their party. In full time, this, like all other such movements, will be utilized by the Republicans, and thus a scheme professing to be independent will further the ends of partanship, and Republican partanship at that. It is the best for all concerned that this matter be defined right at the beginning.

In North Carolina politics, from top to bottom, this year there is room for but two parties, and we have no idea that the skill of the opposition will ensnare any number of Democrats to cast even the slightest influence against their party and the great measure for which it stands this year.

A PROTECTIVE TAX.

We people down south do not have much idea of the tremendous amounts of money which are spent on some of the city schools in the richer and more populous sections of the country. Cleveland, Ohio, for instance, comparatively, not a large city, last year put $1,266,061 in her schools. The thought of that much money in schools for a single year in a single town, and it not the largest in the country, is enough to stagger North Carolinians. The cost per capita during the year for the children attending is figured at $24 43. If a child in this State outside the towns gets $1.50 per year he may thank his stars for for living in a county with such a plethoric treasure.

This is an enormous amount of money to spend, and of course there are people in Cleveland, as everywhere else, who object to spending any amount for the purpose of education, holding that it is not right to tax a man who has no children for the education of another man's, but the utter selfishness of this view is the smallest objection to it. The right way to look at the question says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, "is to regard the school tax as a protective tax against ignorance, which is detrimental to a community, as the taxes for police and fire department support are protections against crime and disaster. Regarded in that light, the school tax is a light burden compared with its benefits, even on those who pay largely and have no children in the public schools."

That is right. Were we allowed to make a justification for school taxes we should put it upon the grounds of humanity and brotherly love, but of course this would not stand by the books. The point that the tax is a "protective" tax against ignorance, will stand, however, and it is good. All we need in North Carolina now is to make it a "graduated" tax, that is, more ignorance, more tax.

Somehow we feel like agreeing with General Lew Wallace about the fuss that is being kicked up over that little matter of $90,000 which the Turk is said to owe.

"Wherein has this magnificent century failed," asks a symposium writer in the Charlotte Observer. Mr. Jas. W. Osborne answers that the law has failed, in that our code of criminal law does not fit the average jury's idea of mercy and humanity for the offender. William Dean Howells thinks the end of the century shows a lack of appreciation of poetry, while another writer says that business honor has not improved. These discussions are very interesting, and the positions no doubt in the main true. One of the deficiencies may be partially, at least, supplied, if public opinion were aroused on the subject. That is the point made regarding the law. Though Mr. Osborne doesn't say so, there is too much red tape and too little effort at justice in the average court..

Gen. Lew Wallace on the Turkish Trouble.

Washington Post.

"To me the idea of the great and powertul United States engaging in a controversy with Turkey over a despicable $100,000 is ridiculous," said Gen. Lew Wallace, who was minister to Constantinople under the Garfield administration, at the National hotel last night. "Mr. Straus states that the Sultan promised to pay the claim; the Turkish minister declares that no such promise was made. Of course, I do not profess to know which one of these gentlemen is correct, but this I do know, that the present Sultan of Turkey is an honest man. I never knew h'm to tell a lie, and I never knew him to break a promise, and I think I am better acquainted with him than probably any other American. Without doub' great atrocities were committ d and much property destroyed by the Khourds, but it is a fact that while these acts were perpetrated upon the Armenians, no American suffered the loss of a hair from his head. Abdul Hamid is no more to be blamed for those crimes than William McKinley would be if the Apache Indians should go upon the war path and slay the white settlers, as they have done in times past. The Christians in Turkey are under the patronage of the Sultan, and without his protection they could not remain. There are some 3,000,000 of Greeks, and perhaps 4,000,000 of Armenians who are Christians, and the Sultan regards them as his subjects. Without them the Turkish government would fail, for they are the tradespeople, and the Turk is a warrior.

"Not a Christian church is burned or a mission destroyed but the Sultan is the first man to subscribe to rebuild. I know this to be so. Abdul Hamid is a distinguished scholar and a diplomat, and if it were not so the Ottoman Empire would have been crushed out long ago, for the hand of every ruler in Europe is against him. He prevents them from acting together, and thus preserves his throne. He was educated in Paris, and though a Mussulman he has Christian ideas and sentiments. All that Kurds, who are the perpetrators of these crimes against the Christians, have in common with the Sultan and the Turks is that they too, are followers of Mohammed. They are numerous on the eastern border of the empire, and have never been fully conquered by the government.

"I am not expressing any opinions as to politics," continued Gen. Wallace. "My Porto Rican interview was my last, although I have not seen fit to change my opinion. Indiana is just now in a great political turmoil and I would not undertake to predict the result. I came to Washington to make some extracts from a book in the Congressional Library. I could not find the publication anywhere else in the country. It will take me about two hours and then I shall return home. Yes, I am working on a new book, but don't know when it will appear. I write very slowly and take my time."

UNCLE JOE CANNON.

The Old Guilford Boy Gets a Bottle of Mr. Kluttz's Tar Heel.

Washington Post.

A very warm place in the heart of North Carolina Democrats has "Uncle Joe" Cannon. It doesn't matter about his politics, nor whether he is framing appropriation bills, seated placidly at the head of a mahogany table, nor whether, with collars and cuffs of a striped blue pattern, he is hopping about in the Republican aisle fighting items that seem to be too generous. The North Carolinians remember that he was once a Tar Heel, born down at Guilford, and, as a boy, romped over the Tar Heel country.

The other day Representative Kluttz, whose home, the city of Salisbury, is a great centre for the manufacture and distillation of good corn whiskey, had a case of several bottles that had grown old in wood. In distributing these among some friends Mr. Kluttz included "Uncle Joe" as a man who ought to remember the excellence of the native product.

Democratic Primaries.

The Democrats of the city of Greensboro are hereby called to assemble in their ward meetings on Thursday, May 3rd at 8:30 p. m., at the following places:

First ward, Farmers warehouse.

Second ward, Lindsey street graded school house.

Third ward, market house.

Fourth ward, Banner warehouse

Fifth ward, Ross building, 112 Lewis street.

Sixth ward, Asheboro street graded school building.

At said ward meetings each ward shall select two candidates for aldermen and one member of the city executive committee. A vote shall be taken in the ward meetings for candidates for mayor and said vote for mayor shall be sent to the general convention to be held in the court house on Friday night May 4th at 8:30 o'clock.

If any candidate for mayor shall receive a majority of the votes cast in the wards he shall be the nominee of the convention. If no candidate for Mayor receives a majority in the ward meetings, then the convention shall proceed to ballot for a candidate for mayor.

In order to avoid confusion, it is requested that each ward assemble in the court house in the portion which will be assigned to it and each have a chairman and two tellers.

C. H. Ireland,
Chairman.

John Michaux, Sec.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

We believe that Chamberlains's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see how it would affect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

CANCER Cannot be Cut Out or Removed with Plasters

Surgical operations and flesh destroying plasters are useless, painful and dangerous, and besides, never cure Cancer.

No matter how often a cancerous sore is removed, another comes at or near the same point, and always in a worse form. Does not this prove conclusively that Cancer is a blood disease, and that it is folly to attempt to cure this deep-seated, dangerous blood trouble by cutting or burning out the sore, which, after all, is only an outward sign of the disease—a place of exit for the poison?

Cancer runs in families through many generations, and those whose ancestors have been afflicted with it are liable at any time to be stricken with the deadly malady.

Only Blood Diseases can be Transmitted from One Generation to Another

—further proof that Cancer is a disease of the blood.

To cure a blood disease like this you must cure the entire blood system—remove every trace of the poison. Nothing cures Cancer effectually and permanently but S. S. S.

S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes all taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cells. No mere tonic or ordinary blood medicine can do this. S. S. S. goes down to the very roots of the disease, and forces out the deadly poison, allowing the sore to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. at the same time purifies the blood and builds up the general health.

A little pimple, a harmless looking wart or mole, a lump in the breast, a cut or bruise that refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, should all be looked upon with suspicion, as this is often the beginning of a bad form of cancer.

Mrs. Sarah M. Keesling, 921 Windsor Ave., Bristol, Tenn., writes: "I am 41 years old, and for three years had suffered with a severe form of Cancer on my jaw, which the doctors in this city said was incurable, and that I could not live more than six months. I accepted their statement as true, and had given up all hope of ever being well again, when my druggist, knowing of my condition, recommended S. S. S. After taking a few bottles the sore began to heal, much to the surprise of the physicians, and in a short time made a complete cure. I have gained in flesh, my appetite is splendid, sleep is refreshing—in fact, am enjoying perfect health."

DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS.

The Work of the Executive Committee Commences Monday.

Raleigh News and Observer.

The Democratic headquarters will be in running order Monday. Yesterday Chairman Simmons and Secretary Pearsall were busy getting things in shape. On Monday their arrangements will be complete, and the headquarters will be ready for work in the campaign.

The committee has secured rooms at the Carrolton Hotel for their headquarters. Messrs. MacRary and Boyd have accepted positions as stenographers to the committee.

Mr. Pearsall, the secretary, will be constantly at the headquarters until the end of the campaign. The work begins Monday in earnest, and the committee will keep up the campaign vigorously.

An Important Question.

Omaha World-Herald.

A North Omaha Sunday school superintendent always conducts the lesson review in his school. He spends about five minutes in explaining the lesson and then asks:

"Now, has any one a question to ask?"

Last Sunday he explained the lesson as usual, dwelling at length on his chief thoughts, and wound up with the usual question:

"Now, has any one a question to ask?"

A member of the boys' junior class raised his hand.

"Well, what is your question?" asked the superintendent.

"Please, sir, are we going to have a picnic this summer?"

A Square Business Proposition.

Atlanta Constitution

A correspondent, writing from Dade county, says:

"What will you charge me to print two columns of poetry made by me in two days and seven minutes, and signed with my full name?"

We have referred the matter to the business department, with the request that special time rates be given.

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Hoax—"My wife always takes me along when she wants a hat. I can pick out the very latest styles." Joax—"How do you manage it?" Hoax—"By looking at the price on the tags."

BLOOD POISON CURED BY B.B.B

Deep-seated, obstinate cases, the kind that have resisted doctors, hot springs and patent medicine treatment, yield quickly to B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), thoroughly tested for 30 years. B. B. B. has cured such indications as mucous patches in the mouth, sore throat, eruptions, eating sores, bone pains, itching skin, swollen glands, stiff joints, copper colored spots, chancres, ulceration on the body, and in hundreds of cases where the hair and eyebrows have fallen out and the whole body was a mass of boils, pimples and ulcers this wonderful specific has completely changed the whole body into a clean, perfect condition, free from eruptions, and skin smooth with the glow of perfect health. B. B. B. is the only known perfect cure for blood poison. So sufferers may test B. B. B. and know for themselves that it cures, a trial bottle will be sent free of charge.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Chief Justice Bleckley, of Ga., has tried Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy. His decision: "Atlanta, Ga., March 14.—Dr. Chas O. Tyner, Atlanta, Ga.: I have used, and am now using, Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy. It is a mental as well as a physical elixir. With its aid and a pair of spectacles I can frequently see the law in spite of unsuitable or too much diet. LOGAN E. BLECKLEY." Price 50c. a bottle at all druggists; or sent for price, express paid, by Tyner Dyspepsia Remedy Co., 45 Mitchell St., Atlanta Ga. At retail by Howard Gardner.

"Pull up!" That's the counsel very often given by a well meaning person to a friend who is slipping down the road of alcoholism. And when the answer comes "I can't stop," the man is perhaps reproached for the cowardice of that phrase, "I can't."

But intemperance is only a form of disease, and there may come a time in the progress of any disease when it can't be stopped. That's what we mean when we talk of "galloping consumption." It's like a horse running away with us. We can't stop it.

Strength will stop the wildest horse. Strength is the great necessity in the stopping of disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands who had obstinate cough, bronchitis, weak lungs, spitting of blood, emaciation, and similar ailments which if neglected or unskillfully treated lead to consumption. It cures by strengthening the lungs and giving them power to throw off disease.

"I had been troubled with bronchitis and catarrh of the head for eight years; had severe cough and at times great difficulty in breathing," writes J. W. Howerton, Esq., of Bigfall, Hancock Co., Tenn. "A portion of the time my appetite was poor and part of the time I was unable to do anything. I had been treated by our best country physicians for several years but with little benefit. I had been reading about your medicine for several years but hadn't much faith in it. Last spring I concluded that I would try it and before I had taken one-third of a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' I began to mend. I continued taking it until I had taken seven bottles. Now I feel like a new man and can do as hard a day's work as any man. I advise all of my friends who are diseased to take Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Free. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser free. Send stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FAMINE MISERY INDISCRIBABLE.

Five Millions in Want, and Children Wander Naked and Starving.

Calcutta, April 23—The latest reports from the famine districts say that the misery existing there is indescribable and unparalled, and that the present relief is quite inadequate. They add that the mortality among the cattle is also so severe that the authorities are trying to adapt farm implements so that human power can replace that of bullocks. Such a drastic measure had never before been necessary even in the greatest scarcity of animals.

It is also announced that the natives are developing ugly feelings and are attacking Europeans. A great crowd Friday murderously attacked a party of soldiers at Shahpur, the military center of the Northwest provinces. The soldiers were rescued with difficulty and in an unconscious condition. One district lost overone million cattle out of 1,300,000 heads and almost numberless human beings were found dead from starvation. In addition, children were found wandering in all directions, homeless, naked and emaciated, and cases were reported of children being sold.

The official reports fully confirm the worst stories of the terrible nature of the distress.

FIVE MILLION IN WANT.

London, April 23—The Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon, wired that the recent rain storms have not improved the situation, that the demands for relief are increasing, now reaching 5,319,000 persons, but that the arrangements for relief are equal to the increasing strain.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

Contemplates matrimony—the guest at a wedding.

FOR THE BABIES.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The man who is driven to drink usually starts with "ponies."

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

Counterfeiting may be a dangerous game, but forging is all write.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

When the worst comes to the worst the only thing to be done is to make the best of it.

GLORIOUS NEWS

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help: but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

Hard Things to Say About a Boy.

New York Sun.

Two Harlem men were coming down town the other morning in a surface car, one who has a state reputation for his plainness of person. He calls it an absence of personal pulchritude, but that is merely an euphemistic distinction with a difference. Part of the way with them came the ten-year-old boy of the other one who left the car at a cross street.

"That's a bright boy," said the fond father looking after him as the youngster hopped out of the way of the next car.

"Yes," said the homely man, "Ive got one myself."

"They are great blessing, aren't they?"

"That depends," admitted the homefather as if in doubt.

"I don't understand," said the other in a more or less horrified tone.

"Well, a bright boy," explained the homely man, "is all right up to a certain limit, but you dont want him to be too dazzlingly brilliant. That's the kind I think mine is. I am afraid he will strike a sort of meteoric career when he grows up and land in the legislature or the penitentiary or some place like those. Last week a friend of mine met him on the street with his mother. It was an old friend who had known us before we were married. 'My, my,' he said patting the boy on the head; 'how very much you look like your father.' And instead of thanking him and being pleased, what do you suppose my brilliant offspring said? Why, he gave a short grunt of disapproval and responded, 'Well, I think that's a hard thing to say about a boy that never done anything to you.'

"Didn't his mother reprove him?" inquired the other one sympathetically.

"No; she only laughed. I'm beginning to lose confidence in the mothers of the rising generations, too," and the sensitive father bowed beneath his burden of homliness.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a single attack since.—A. B. COLD STEEL OR DEATH

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is by an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wisconsin, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous powers of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price fifty cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

"You have a heart of ice!" he bitterly exclaimed. The Boston maid waxed haughty. "Really, sir," she said, "one would think from your remark that you took my thorax for a refrigerator."

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, rundown feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Tramp—"Please, mum, gimme a nickel to git some coffee?" Old Lady—"Here it is, poor fellow. But why are you going into that saloon?" "Yes, lady. Dey hev it on de bar, along wid cloves and sech other things."

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. It's early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

J. I. Carson, Prothonotary, Washington Pa., says, "I have found Ko-Do-l Dyspepsia Cure an excellent remedy in case of stomach trouble, and have derived great benefit from its use." It digests what you eat and can not fail to cure. Howard Gardner.

Cleanse the liver, purify the blood, invigorate the body by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills always acts promptly. Howard Gardner.

Memphis Commercial Appeal: If the presidential bee gets in Mrs. Dewey's Easter bonnet, there will be a honey of a time.

H. Clark, Chauncey, Ga., says DeWitt's Wich Hazel Salve cured him of piles that had afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a speedy cure for skin diseases. Beware of dangerous counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

Where England is Losing Ground.

Boston Globe.

Whenever England loses her grip on the world's merchant tonnage it will be the beginning of the end of her supremacy on the seas. It now exceeds that of all the other nations, and in spite of all the competition, she is still determined to hold the lead.

But every year it is more and more difficult to hold it. Other flags are rapidly gaining on the British, and the rivalry is already very keen. There are now being built twenty-five big steamers for service between this country and Europe, and only nine of them are English.

An American line is building six vessels. A continental company advertises 131 trips between New York and Europe between January and November, and the British rivals seem unable to keep the pace. The Germans, too, are rapidly coming to the front as shipbuilders.

When other nations get the merchant ships, England may have the warships. But the period of her decadance will have begun.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

MANY LIVES SAVED.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever an opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

SEVEN RUNNING SORES CURED

—BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

THE GREAT SPRING MEDICINE.

JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA as a Blood Food and Nerve Energizer, is the greatest SPRING MEDICINE ever discovered. It comes as a rich blessing from heaven to the "worn out," the run down, the overworked and debilitated. That "tired feeling," those "sinking spells," the languor and despondency which arise from badly nourished nerves, from thin, vitiated blood and an underfed body, vanish as if by a magic spell. The weariness, lassitude and nervous prostration which accompany the spring-time and the heat of summer, are conquered and banished at once. For every form of neurasthenia, and all ailments of the brain and nerve, insomnia, hysteria and nervousness generally, it is almost a specific. It furnishes the very elements to rebuild worn-out nerve tissues. It feeds brain, nerve centers and nerves, calming and equalizing their action; it makes rich, red, honest blood. Newness of life, new hope, new strength follow its faithful use. It makes the weak strong, and the old young again.

It was the antiquated (but now happily exploded) method in the good old times, to treat Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Cancer and other troublesome disorders arising from BLOOD TAINT with powerful alteratives, such as mercury, arsenic and other mineral agents. It was expected by this treatment that the poison could be killed while the blood was left to course through its channels holding in its circulation the specific germs of the disease. But in this way, every part of the body became more or less diseased. Nothing can be more terrible than a horribly destructive blood taint. It not only attacks virulently the different structures of the body, but many times the bones are honey-combed and destroyed. It often seeks out the nerves and spinal cord, and again it will bring decay and death to some vital organ, as the kidneys, liver or stomach. There is only one scientific method for the cure of blood taint. That is, PURIFICATION! Every particle of the blood must be removed through the excretory channels, the lungs, kidneys, bowels, liver and skin. "First pure, then peaceable." The great restorative, reconstructive and vitalizer of the blood, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, not only radically and exhaustively removes the taint, but also removes all mercury, calomel and other minerals, and fills the veins and arteries with the ruby, glowing current of vitality. "The blood is the life." Good health means pure blood. The old and reliable remedy, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, is universally regarded as the greatest Blood Purifier ever discovered. This fact is now established beyond question or cavil.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhœa. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

AN INDEPENDENT TICKET.

RESPONSE TO THE ANONYMOUS CALL LAST NIGHT.

Hon. L. M. Scott For Mayor—The Candidates For Aldermen—Two Republicans on It.

In response to the anonymous call made by circulars distributed throughout the streets yesterday, a crowd gathered at the court house last night, many of them expecting to hear a discussion of things concerning the welfare of the city, but there was no such discussion. The work was previously cut and dried and it did not require long to ratify it.

Mr. C. N. McAdoo rapped for order and moved that Mr. J. E. Catlin be made chairman. The motion was adopted and on taking the chair Mr. Catlin said: "The time has come when some of us desire a change in city affairs and we have met here for the purpose of taking such steps as we think best."

Mr. E. G. West was chosen assecretary; C. N. McAdoo assistant. The chairman then announced that nominations for the office of Mayor were in order, whereupon Mr. C. N. McAdoo arose and presented the name of Hon. Levi M. Scott, who he said, was better qualified to represent the city than any man in it. Mr. Scott was nominated by acclamation.

There were calls for a speech and Mr Scott responded, saying in part: "My friends, this is a surprise to me, but I appreciate the honor more than I can tell. I sincerely thank you, not that I was seeking the nomination, for I would rather it had been conferred upon a younger and more capable man. But we have a right, fellow citizens, to come together and consult for the public good. The constitution vouchsafes to us that right. The people have the right to regulate their police (applause) and by saying police more is meant than the mere officers who serve on the police force. The regulation of the police means the government of the city. The urgency of the situation demands that we assert our rights."

The speaker here went back to the old days "when there was no organized congress and when the people met together in mass meeting and discussed questions and passed their laws and elected their rulers. I favor that system rather than the modern plan of primaries. Here we are discarding all politics and getting together on common ground. I did not want the office. I told my friends to put it on somebody else. I thank you for the confidence you have placed in me, and if elected I will do my best to serve the best interests of your growing city."

Nominations for aldermen were next in order and Mr. C. N. McAdoo moved that the chairman appoint one man from each ward to repair to the jury room and report names for aldermen to be ratified by the convention. The motion was adopted, the committee appointed and after a short absence from the room returned with the following report which was read by Mr. C. N. McAdoo:

First Ward—A. M. McAdoo, J. H. Walsh.
Second—S. B. Adams, J. E. Catlin.
Third—H. J. Elam, M. C. Stewart.
Fourth—Neil Ellington, J. A. Barringer.
Fifth—Jno. Y. Smith, E. L. Armentraut.
Sixth—Will H. Matthews, J. Henry Phipps.

On motion of Mr. A. Weatherly the report of the nominating committee was adopted.

A young man in the crowd arose and said that Mr. J. A. Barringer would not accept the nomination. Mr C N. McAdoo said that Mr. Barringer assured him not more than two hours before that he would accept and he didn't know what authority the young man had for his statement. Mr. McAdoo further said that he had previously interviewed all the nominees except two and that they had all agreed to accept.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The Telegram man interviewed some of the nominees today, and we find that there will be some vacancies to fill on the ticket. Among those interviewed we quote:

Mr. M. C Stewart: "I shall certainly not withdraw. If they run me I shall certainlo stay in the race."

Mr. J. Henry Phipps: "I don't know what I shall do. I shall have to think about it awhile."

Mr. Will H. Matthews: "On account of my business I do not see how I can accept the nomination, though I thank my friends for their confidence. My business occupies all my time and I feel that I cannot afford to run."

Mr. John Y. Smith: "I reckon I shall allow my name to stay on the ticket. I have promised to do so, although it goes a little against the grain to do it."

The friends of some of the nominees whom the reporter failed to find, say they will not accept the nomination, that they are Democrats. However, we only print the news as we find it.

The Democrats will nominate their ticket for alderman on the night of May 3rd at the primaries, and vote for their choice for Mayor, to be ratified at the general meeting on Friday night, May 4th.

Horse and Dog Chase.

Last Sunday afternoon Rev. Dr. F. H. Wood's horse got out of the stable lot, and was followed by his dog. They wandered about the streets west of G. F. College, when some boys got after them with some dogs and ran them out of town. Dr. Wood returned Monday morning and went in search of his runaway animals, finding them at Mrs. Scott's, about a half mile from Guilford College station. The dog was still with the horse.

Three Girls Exactly Alike.

Three five-pound baby girls, exactly alike, entered the family of Jacob Storm, of this place yesterday. The happy father is hunting up names, and hopes soon to establish the identity of his daughters.

THE SOUL OF WIT.

Some Things That Today Help to Make It.

The fast mail was nearly two hours late today going north.

Let every democrat register for the coming city election, May 7.

The Shakespeare Club will meet this evening at Mrs. Brook's, on Summit avenue.

Officer Jeffries arrested J. L. Cheek last night and carried him to Hillboro, where he was wanted to answer a charge of seduction.

The importance of registration for the coming city election should be apparent to every Democrat. Let all see to it that their names are on the books.

The big black horse, "Old Charlie," belonging to the Steamer Co., died last night from some spinal or kidney trouble. He was a fine horse and will be hard to replace.

Chas. Thomas, representing the Chas. M. Stieff piano manufactory, of Baltimore, is in the city, stopping at the Hotel Clegg. He has with him ten of the celebrated Stieff pianos that he can offer at a sacrifice. Any one wishing to purchase one will do well to call on him or drop him a postal card.

The literary meeting of the Epworth League held at West Market church was one of the most successful in the history of the League. The papers, by Mr. L. W. Crawford, Jr., Dr. Jno. H. Wheeler, and Miss Mary Trotter, were of a high order, and were well received by the large number in attendance. The music was very fine and added much to the program.

The Euterpe Club Yesterday Afternoon

The Euterpe Club met yesterday afternoon with Miss Friend. The sickness of several members prevented the attractive program which had been prepared being given in full.

English music was the subject of the afternoon entertainment. Mrs. Van Noppen read an interesting and instructive paper on "English Ballads and Part Song." Mrs. Norman Wills rendered with characteristic taste and brilliancy Kube's beautiful arrangement of "The Lost Chord." Interesting magazine articles bearing on the subject, English music, were read. Field's Fifth Nocturne was well executed by Mrs. Van Noppen.

The treasurer reported that after all expenses, which were very heavy, had been paid, the proceeds of the Cantata, "Christ the Victor," which was given under the auspices of the club Easter Monday night, amounted to $25 00.

Long Distance 'Phone Working.

Mr. Wood has completed his job of putting in the long distance telephone office in this city. The office is in Grissom & Fordham's drug store, and a nice booth will be fixed up in the rear of the prescription department. Mr. James Northey, manager in Charlotte, was here this morning testing the 'phone, and left at noon for Durham, to attend the grand lodge Knights of Pythias. Mr. Wood expects to leave tonight for Charlotte. The long distance 'phone people are to be congratulated on the handsome location they will have at Grissom & Fordham's. A Telegram man had a talk over the new line last night with Mr. Avery, of the Charlotte Observer, and the conversation was heard as easily and distinctly as if it were not over a block away.

Marriage last Night.

The home of Mr. Henry Clendenin on Pearson street was the scene of a quiet, but very pretty marriage last night. Miss Julia McNairy and Mr. Harry Lewis were the contracting parties. Rev. Mr. Wagg, of Centenary church, performed the ceremony, to which only the immediate family of the young couple were invited. Miss McNairy is a lovely woman whose many attractions have made her a host of friends. Mr. Lewis is with the Acme Mill Works, and a popular young gentleman.

He's a Sly One—Is Sam

Mr. Sam Browne is a sly one. He tried in a jocular way to leave the impression when he went to Oxford recently that there was going to be some one with him when he returned. Since returning he has laughingly said that he would bring some one back next time. They say that there may be some foundation in fact for this, but that before he goes again he will have a wife to take with him. Wait for the news in tomorrow's paper.

Wanted.

Wanted board and room for young couple in small, quiet private family living convenient to business centre of the city. Would like house with large yard and modern conveniences. References exchanged, address with full particulars, S., care Telegram office. a-16-e-o-d-2-w.

The Professor's Foresight.

Professor Frederick von Martens, who holds the chair of international law in the St. Petersburg university and is a frequent representative of the czar in legal councils of moment, is not a Russian citizen, nor even a Russian subject, but a philosophic German. He is a notable linguist and author, and at the Venezuela arbitration conference in Paris, where he read the decision of the commission, he had a pleasant fashion of addressing each delegate in his own language. One of the English jurists wondered how the professor was able to keep up his knowledge of so many modern tongues.

The professor replied: "It is self defense. You see, in case I lose my chair I wish to be prepared for any offer you foreigners may make."—Saturday Evening Post.

Safety In Battle.

Every soldier believes that the only safe place under fire is the recent scene of some cannonade escapade. When defending a fort or camp, the wounded are generally placed in the breaches, as the enemy is not likely to waste powder and shot on points which have already been cleared of all barricade. The same holds true of naval engagements. Sailors much prefer to sit in some yawning gap still hot and smoking from the effect of a splintering cannon ball than behind the stoutest bulwark.

Progress.

An Egyptian paper announces that "first-class, up to date, modern dining cars" are to be run this season between Cairo and Luxor and that "an American dentist has started in business at Assouan, which is on the edge of the Sudan." A "palace hotel" at Khartum for the special accommodation of tourists will also be completed and opened for business in about three months.

Philadelphia, March 15, 1900. Messrs. Thacker & Brockmann, Greensboro, N. C.: Gentleman:—We have your favor of the 14th inst., and in reply beg to say that the boat with the China mattings is now due, and we hope she will arrive now at any time. As soon as we get hold of the goods we will ship the same to you, and will give your order prompt attention. She was unexpectedly delayed by the United States government at Manila, and was late in sailing from Hong Kong. Thanking you for kind favors, and assuring you of prompt attention to your order as soon as the goods are in sight, we remain Yours truly, Albert Graff & Co.

Philadelphia, April 13, 1900. Messrs. Thacker & Brockman, Greensboro, N. C: Gentleman:—Your favor of 12th inst received and contents noted. In reply will state that the "St. Mark," carrying our China matting, has arrived, and been in port for several days. We are now shipping mattings and will be able to ship your goods tomorrow. We are glad to state that this cargo has turned out in first-class shape, and the mattings are fresh and desirable, and we have no doubt but what you will be very well pleased with the same. Regretting that they have been so late in arriving, and hoping for further orders from you, we remain, Yours truly, Albert Graff & Co.

We placed an order in December with the above firm for some two thousand yards of matting, to be shipped February 1st, and have been very much disappointed at not getting it here long before this time. We have been promising our customers all along that it would soon arrive, and as the above letters show we have had good promises from the other end of the line. The entire lot finally came in this morning, and as the season is now already far advanced, we have priced this big lot of matting a extremely close margins in order to make it move off at a lively rate. There are about a dozen styles, prices ranging from 12½c to 33c per yd. THACKER & BROCKMANN.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure no renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Price 25 cents per number, $2.50 a year.

A sample copy will be sent on receipt of ten cents in stamps.
